

Optimal transmission of driving/delivery support information through coordinated display of multiple displays placed in the cockpit

- Provide a comfortable driving environment and contribute to the safety and security of drivers and society for reducing driver's stress and improving delivery efficiency in driving/delivery operations
- Primary Display : Vehicle information is shown on a transparent display placed on windshield
- Secondary Display : Highlighted information is shown on a center display in 3D at necessary
- Ambient Display : Sensory alerts are conveyed to drivers depending on the scene

Primary Display
Large Transparent Display

Secondary Display
3D Display

Ambient Display
LED Surface Display