

- Display speed and driving support information (following distance etc.)
- Display the information at a position where drivers do not look down for checking displays safely and securely while driving

- Safety needs are further growing according to advanced driving support system, HUD with low distortion and high quality is required

- Distortion correction depending on display position
- Clear displays

Display Size

View Distance

